

cover story

34 Payment of board members

Taking the bait?

features

39

36 Crisis aversion

The causes and effects of a national pensions savings scheme

39 Relaxing the rules

How the Companies Act 2006 will impact on charities and their subsidiaries

Companies Act

40 Dynamic partners

How charities can work together with a new breed of social entrepreneurs

42

42 Staying objective

Does it matter if a charity's mission evolves but its charitable objects remain static?

Charity objects

44 A group effort

How a Liverpool charity is pioneering a new form of business development

Sponsored by

ICT supplement

27

28 Embracing opportunities

The voluntary sector must embrace new technologies to engage its users

30 Remote control

Avoiding breaches of security when staff are working remotely

32 Name and shame

The dangers of failing to register internet domain names

Direct marketing focus

47

48 Channel surfing

Targeted multi-channel marketing

50 Direct marketing survey

Marketing agencies and their services

charitytimes

FIRST CHOICE FOR NON-PROFIT MANAGEMENT

News

06 Dateline

09 News analysis

Ofcom's auction of freed-up airwaves, the Charity Commission's new faith unit and training of public service commissioners

12 News

14 Debate forum

Should charities be forced to spend resources valuing their heritage assets?

16 Events

The launch of the Commission for the Compact, plus diary listings

17 Letters & publications

Reader feedback and new books

Columns

18 Research review

The growth of health sector social enterprises

19 Trend watch

Payment of trustees will split the sector, not improve governance

20 At the Commission

The ongoing debate over the definition of public benefit

21 Policy & politics

Breach of Compact – naming and shaming the worst offenders

22 Would like to meet...

Roger Chatterton, chief commander of St John Ambulance

Charity Services

52 Conference Venue Guide:
52-58 Venue listings and details

54 Market Guide:
Comprehensive listings of products and services for the sector